List below the requested information regarding a paper written on an Animal Law subject (two papers are required). The professor's signature is necessary to confirm completion of this requirement.

To qualify for a Certificate in Animal Law, among other things, a student must write two "substantial papers on an animal law topic." This form is to certify that the student has written one of the two required papers.

While the determination of what constitutes a "substantial" paper lies in the judgment of the faculty member, ordinarily a paper in a course that counts for more than half the course grade would probably be a "substantial" paper.

THIS PAPER CANNOT BE USED TO SATISFY ANY OTHER CERTIFICATE'S PAPER COMPONENT.
