Realizing Dreams: Supporting Students

Students are the heart of Lewis & Clark Law School. They come to us with dreams of making a difference with their knowledge, grit, and dedication. For most students, fulfilling those dreams is a daunting prospect, not just because of the academic challenge presented by law school, but also because of the financial obligation it involves. Scholarships offer pathways through those obstacles—presenting a way forward to developing leaders of tomorrow.

YOUR IMPACT

Your campaign scholarship gift to the law school will:

Provide financial relief for students. Scholarship donations enable students to choose Lewis & Clark Law School, graduate with a reduced financial burden and further their ability to make a positive impact on the world.

Send a vote of confidence to student recipients. Students see that others believe in their worth and are willing to make a material contribution to their success. And, as a donor, you witness a direct and immediate impact on a future leader.

GIVING OPPORTUNITIES

Named Scholarships A named or restricted scholarship is created in honor of a beloved colleague or family member and supports students in a defined interest area or life situation. The scholarship is a legacy gift that keeps on giving and can be created two ways:

Endowed Scholarships: Endowed scholarship funds are invested, generally grow over time in perpetuity, and the interest is distributed yearly, helping students indefinitely. Donors may name an endowed scholarship, have the opportunity to help design selection criteria and participate in the selection of scholarship recipients. Recommended $100,000 investment commitment ($50,000 minimum).

Annual Scholarships: Annual scholarship funds are distributed yearly until depleted, with the annual distribution determined by the donor. Donors can support deserving students with a contribution of $10,000 per year for up to five years (minimum $30,000 with a three year commitment).

Existing Named Scholarships You can also peruse the list at law.lclark.edu/giving/donor-named-scholarships and make a gift of any amount to an existing named scholarship that matches your funding interest.

Law Fund Student Scholarships The Law Fund is the single biggest contributor to annual student scholarships and provides critical annual support for all of our programs. Gifts of any amount will directly and immediately benefit students, faculty, and programs.
